

Gisburn Park Estate Map

•••• Estate paths

— Ribble way

please keep dogs on a lead at all times thankyou

Views of Ingleborough

views of Penyegeint and Fountain Fell

Kirk wife Wood

Tumulus (Bronze Age Burialground)

Castle Haugh built in 11 by Sir William de Percy

Boundary gate of Ribblesdale park, carry on to join footpath to Tumulus and castle Haugh

Crisburn Road to Boltonby Bowland
Pendle Forest & Craven Hunt Kennels Ellenthorpe

Ruins of Lord Ribblesdales Kennels
Temple Wood
Gisburn Park Hospital

Poultry House Bridge

Game Keepers and Fishermans holiday cottages

Follow the path along the river to the Viaduct

River Ribble
Trout in the river
Along the riverpath look for Kingfishers, you may also spot Sika deer if you are quiet

Gisburn Bridge a great spot for Pooch Sticks
The Stables
Mill House (front view)

Listen for Woodpeckers

Olive Cromwell Stock back crossed the river here on his way to the Battle of Preston

Coppice Wood

Deer House Holiday Cottages 1+2

Line Tree Avenue
The Archway
Ribblesdale park and Reception

Poppy House (private)

Look for the Alpacas
Coppice and Gardeners Holiday Cottages

Shooting lodge

Pond

Auction market, great for lunch, Thurs Sat and some Mondays

Petrol Station
A59 to Clitheroe

Gisburn Park lodge gates built by Lord Ribblesdale in 1800

The elaborate railway tunnel was built by Lord Ribblesdale in 18 frightening to stop the trains his horses

Gisburn Village School

Shop playground

White Bull Pub

La Locanda Italian Restaurant

To Barrowford Nelson and Colne

To Strick House, Gym, Pool Squash

Pendle Witch Country

Views of Pendle Hill